The great Gabriel, the most godly, / radiant and salvific intelligence, / who with the ranks on high beholdeth the light of the threefold Sun / and chanteth divine and awesome hymnody, // prayeth that He grant unto our souls peace and great mercy.

(1) Reader: For He hath made His mercy to prevail over us,

And the truth of the Lord a - bi - deth for ev - - - er.

The great mystery unknown before to the angels / and kept secret from before time began / was entrusted to thee alone, O Gabriel; / and thou didst declare it to her who alone is pure, / having arrived in Nazareth. /
With her do thou pray, that God grant unto our souls peace and great mercy.

Reader: He maketh his angels spirits,

And His min - is - ters a flame of fire.

Ever full of light, doing the will of the Almighty / and carrying out His commands, / O chief among the angels, /
most excellent Gabriel, / save those who honor thee with love, // ever asking that God grant unto our souls peace and great mercy.
