

November 12: Venerable Father Nilus
Stichera on "Lord I have cried", Tone 8 - Kievan

(3) Reader: For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption;

And He shall redeem Israel out of all His in - i - - - qui - ties.

What now shall we call thee, O ho - ly one? A river issuing forth from the no - et - ic E - den, a tor - rent of gifts — bestowed by God, a flood of the grace of teach - ings, a cup of wisdom and know - ledge, a most mighty intercessor, a most act - ive teach - er. Pray thou that our souls be saved.

(2) Reader: O praise the Lord, all ye nations;

Praise Him all ye peo - - - - - ples.

What shall we name thee, O venerable one? /

Cultivator of the gardens of immortality, O blessed one, /

husbandman of the noetic paradise of the faithful, /

one most skilled in the laws given by God, /

one who knowest the divinely inspired dogmas, /

speaker of nature most good and instructor most content. //

Pray thou that our souls be saved.

(1) Reader: For He hath made His mercy to prevail over us,

And the truth of the Lord a - bid - eth for - ev - - - - - er.

What now shall I call thee, O wondrous one? /

One who laid down the rules of marriage, /

governor of chastity, instructor of monastics, guide of virginity, /

one who rightly balanced both, /

as having by experience passed through both, /

Many were thy goodly deeds and great thy fasting for God. //

Pray thou that our souls be saved.
