

Reader: Glory, in the 4th Tone

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spi - - - rit.

This day let us the assemblies of the Or-tho-dox, faithfully acting in accordance with pi - e - ty, cel - e - brate the prayerful commemoration of the God - bear-ing fa - thers who in the splendid city of Ni - ce - a as - sem - bled from through-out all _____ the world; for with pi - ous re - solve they cast down the godless dogma of the fear-some Ar - i - us, and in coun - cil expelled him from the cath - o - lic Church, and in their Symbol of Faith have clear-ly taught all to con-fess the Son of God to be consubstantial, equally everlasting, and existent from before the a - ges set-ting this forth pre-cise-ly and de-vout - - - ly. Where-fore, following their divine dog-mas and be-liev-ing them with cer-tain-ty, we wor-ship the Tri-ni-ty One in Es-sence—the Son and the Holy Spirit together with the Father in One God-head.

Reader: Both now... in the same tone.

Both now and ever and unto the a-ges of a-ges. A-men.

Mercifully regard the supplications of thy servants, O all-immaculate one, / quelling the uprisings of the cruel demons against us, / and delivering us from every sorrow; / for thee alone have we as a steadfast and sure confirmation, / and we have acquired thine intercession; / let not us that call upon thee be put to shame, O Mistress. / Haste thou to answer the entreaty of those who cry out to thee with faith: / Rejoice thou help, joy and protection of all, // and salvation of our souls.
