giv - en thee strength! Glo - ry to Him Who hath crowned thee!

The second system continues the melody with similar rhythmic patterns. The lyrics are printed below the notes.

Glory to Him Who worketh healings for all through thee!

The third system concludes the troparion with a double bar line. It includes a key signature change to two flats (B-flat and E-flat) for the final few notes. The lyrics are printed below the notes.
