The Feast of Mid-Pentecost - Vespers
(Concelebrated with the feast of a Saint)

The usual beginning and the appointed kathisma.
At "Lord I have cried...", 4 stichera of the feast, in Tone 4:

(8) Reader: Out of the depths have I cried unto Thee, O Lord;

O Lord, hear my voice.

The middle of the days is come, which beginneth with the Savior's arising and whose end is sealed by the divine Pentecost, which is illumined by the radiance of both and uniteth both;

Carol Surgant ~ music.russianorthodox-stl.org ~ 5/23/08
and showing forth the glory which is to come,

it honoreth beforehand the Master's ascension.

(7) Reader: Let Thine ears be attentive

To the voice of my supplication.

< Repeat: "The middle of the days is come..."
(6) Reader: If Thou shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, O Lord, who shall stand?

For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Si-on heard and was glad when the resurrection of Christ was announced, and its faithful children rejoiced,

seeing Him Who by the Spirit wasteth away
the de-file-ment wrought by the mur-der of Christ; and it maketh ready, celebrating the gladsome mid-point be-tween the two feasts.

(5) Reader: For Thy name's sake have I patiently waited for Thee, O Lord;
my soul hath waited patiently for Thy word,

As hath been writ-ten, the abundant outpouring of the divine Spirit upon all draw-eth nigh. This proclaim-eth beforehand the day fixed as the mid-point after the death, burial and res-ur-rec-tion of Christ, which was giv-en by Him to the dis-ci - ples as a true promise pointing to the appearance of the Com-for-ter.

... and then 4 stichera of the Saint.