

Lenten Hymns after Psalm 50
(For Sunday Matins, during the Triodion Period)

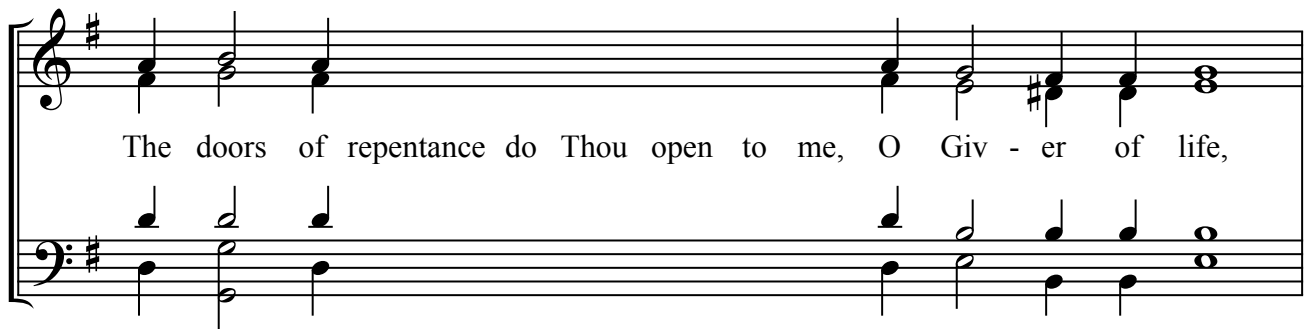

Zosima Hermitage Chant, Tone 8

A

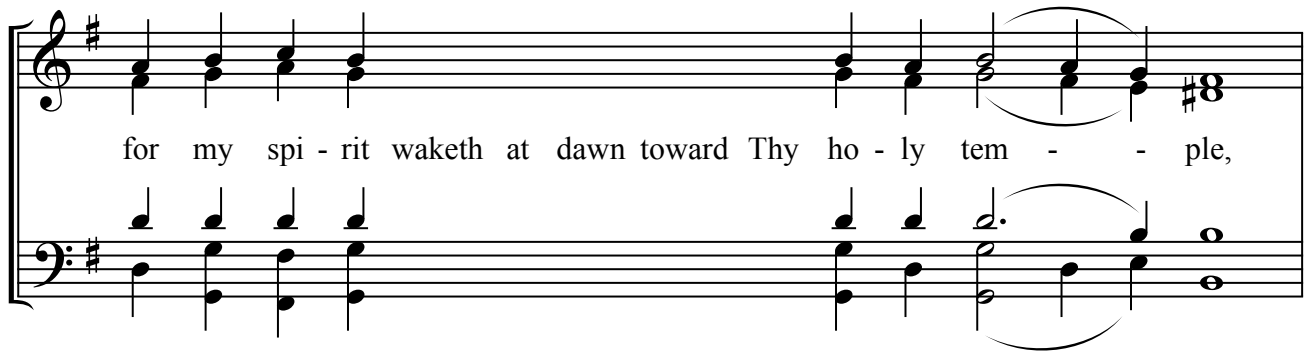

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spi - - - rit.

The doors of repentance do Thou open to me, O Giv - er of life, for my spi - rit waketh at dawn toward Thy ho - ly tem - - - ple, bearing a temple of the bod - y all de - filed. But in Thy compassion, cleanse it by the lov - ing kind - ness of Thy mer - cy.

Both now and ev - er, and un - to the a - ges of a - ges. — A - men.

Guide me in the paths of salvation, O Theo - to - kos, for I have de - filed my soul with shame - ful sins, and have wasted all my life in sloth - ful - ness, but by thine inter - ces - sions de - liv - er me from all un - clean - ness.

Tone 6

Have mer - cy on me, O God, according to Thy great mer - cy;

and according to the multitude of Thy com - pas - - - sions, blot out my trans - gres - sion. When I think of the multitude of e - vil things I have done, I a wretch - ed one,

I tremble at the fearful day of judge - ment, but trusting in the mercy of Thy lov - ing kind - ness, like David do I cry un - to Thee:

Have mercy on me, O God, ac - cord - ing to Thy great mer - cy.

Note: The arrangement in English has been altered to render the final sticheron,
"When I think of the multitude of evil things..." in Tone 6 as is traditional, rather than Tone 8.
