(4) Reader: In the 6th Tone: From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch

Let Is - ra - el hope in the Lord.

When Thou shalt come, O righteous Judge, to execute just judgment, seated on Thy throne of glory, a river of fire will draw all men amazed before Thy judgement seat;

the powers of heaven will stand beside Thee, and in fear mankind will be judged according to the deeds that each has done.

Then spare us, Christ, in Thy compassion, with faith we entreat Thee, and count us worthy of Thy blessings with those that are saved.

(3) Reader: For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption;

And He shall redeem Israel out of all his iniquities.

The books will be opened and the acts of men will be revealed before the unbearable judgement seat; and the whole vale of sorrow shall echo with the fearful sound of lamentation, as all the sinners weeping in vain, are sent by Thy just judgement to everlasting torment. Therefore we beseech Thee,

O compassionate and loving Lord: spare us who sing Thy praise,

for Thou alone art rich in mercy.
(2) Reader: O praise the Lord, all ye nations;
Praise Him all ye peoples.

The trumpets shall sound and the tombs shall be emptied, and all mankind in trembling shall be raised. Those that have done good shall rejoice in gladness, awaiting their reward;

those that have sinned shall tremble and bitterly lament,
as they are sent to punishment and parted from the chosen.
O Lord of glory, take pity on us in Thy goodness, and count us worthy of a place with them that have loved Thee.
(1) Reader: For He hath made His mercy to prevail over us,

And the truth of the Lord abideth forever.

I lament and weep when I think of the eternal fire,

the outer darkness and the nether world, the dread worm and the gnashing of teeth, and the unceasing anguish.

that shall befall those who have sinned without measure,

by their wickedness arousing Thee to anger, O Supreme in love,

Among them in my misery I am first: but, O Judge compassionate,

in Thy mercy save me.
